

U.S. DEPARTMENT OF DEFENSE SUSTAINMENT SERIES

DECEMBER 7-8, 2020

DOD SUSTAINMENT SERIES

EXAMINING RELEVANT ISSUES FACING THE MAINTENANCE AND SUSTAINMENT COMMUNITIES

To fill the void of opportunities afforded for collaboration by face-to-face events such as the annual DoD Maintenance Symposium, the Assistant Secretary of Defense for Sustainment, HON Jordan Gillis, is establishing a virtual, quarterly Sustainment Series.

JOIN US DEC 7 – 8 FOR THIS 2-DAY SERIES

Connect:

December 7, 1:00 - 3:00 PM EST

The Maintenance Innovation Challenge (MIC)

Attend the virtual Maintenance Innovation Challenge presentation round as the six finalists present their game changing technologies. Following all six presentations, take part in the vote for the coveted People's Choice Award winner.

Dec 8, 2020 at 11:00 AM EST

Series opening and Global Conditions Keynote

Dec 8, 2020 at 11:30 AM EST

How Many Rubber Gloves do you Actually Have?

Joint Force Logistics Lessons Learned from COVID-19

Using lessons learned from Personal Protective Equipment (PPE) supply during the COVID-19 pandemic, highlight the necessity for standardizing accountability/asset visibility/data management of common materiel across the Joint Force to enable rapid, decision quality aggregation and informed decision making.

Dec 8, 2020 at 1:00 PM EST

The Challenges to Our Organic Industrial Base Mosaic!

Explore the complexities of ensuring the organic industrial base (OIB) keeps pace with the demands of rapidly evolving high-tech weapon systems and contested battlespace conditions.

Video: <https://meet621927343.adobeconnect.com/mic2020> *

Audio: (888) 537-7715, using passcode: 16161715#

*audio will not be provided through video conference line.

<https://www.dau.edu/events>